Zhengzhou University Career Center 郑州大学生涯中心		Zhengzhou University is the first university in China to offer master’s and doctoral degrees in the specialized field of “Career Development Education.” Zhengzhou University’s Career Guidance and Employment Service Center provides employment guidance and services for all graduates. Visit their center to gain insights into the practical work and challenges of career counseling at the university level in China. 郑州大学是中国首间提供“职业发展教育”二级学科硕士学位与博士学位的大学, 郑州大学大学生就业创业指导服务中心负责全校毕业生的就业指导与服务, 参观他们的中心, 了解中国大学层级的职业咨询实务工作与挑战。
A High School Career Center 高中生涯中心		In high school, students can choose their future major subject. Students who plan to attend college must take the Gaokao in their final year, which requires them to choose between arts and sciences. Since many career decisions are made during high school, career counseling has become an important focus, and most high schools have well-developed career centers. We will visit one of these centers to learn about the specific process of helping students plan their futures. 在高中阶段, 学生可以选择未来的主修科目。希望进入大学的学生则必须在高三参加高考, 并需在文科和理科之间做出选择。由于许多职业选择是在高中阶段确立, 职业咨询因此成为重要的课题, 大部分高中都设有发展完善的生涯中心。我们将参观其中一所, 了解如何帮助学生规划未来的具体流程。
