

Virtual Professional Development Workshop

Career Construction Counseling: A Case Conference

Dr. Mark Savickas

Thu Nov 17/Fri Nov 18, 2022

The best way to learn to practice career construction counseling practice is through case studies. In this workshop, we will study the Case of Michael. Participants will view his responses to the Career Construction Interview Questions and have a discussion after hearing each of the five questions. Then there will be 30-minutes for breakout groups to discuss the case and use the Counselor Form to write a life portrait for Michael. Then we will reassemble and discuss the life portraits and end with a closing 8-minute video of the client and I discussing the portrait.

This 3-hour Professional Development Institute is designed for those who are familiar with Career Construction Theory but need more practice to use it with confidence.
